The image shows a rectangular business card with a black background. At the top, the words "Cicles" and "Camps" are written in a stylized, cursive font, with "Cicles" in yellow and "Camps" in red. Below the text is a large, dark grey bicycle gear. In the center of the gear is a red silhouette of a cyclist in a dynamic riding posture. The background behind the gear is a vibrant red with diagonal light streaks. At the bottom of the card, contact information is listed in yellow text.

This is an oval-shaped version of the business card. It features the same design elements as the rectangular card: the "Cicles Camps" logo in yellow and red cursive, a red cyclist silhouette on a dark grey gear, and contact information in yellow text at the bottom. The background consists of a red field with diagonal light streaks.
